How did you hear about Rails Girls LA? *	My cousin attended a similar workshop in San Francisco that is called RailsBridge. She was telling me that she had a lot of fun. So she told me about this workshop and I decided to give this a try!
What inspired you to want to come to this workshop? *	I stopped going to school due to financial problems, but planning to go back in summer. I know missed a lot in school, but when my cousin told me about your workshop here in LA, I thought that this would be a good opportunity for me to learn about programming. This would be a good preparation for me when I go back to school this summer/fall.

Are you over 21 years old? It's okay if you are not. ;) *	Yes
If No, how old are you?
